Dear Allen,

Thank you so much for your letter about [redacted] application for a job with the CIA. She did not of course want to make any direct application to you or in any way to use your name, I know, or else we would have let you know that she was thinking of the CIA. She is now touring in the West but is very much interested in a Washington job and I think will again be seeing people there in mid-September.

STATINTL

I have a vague feeling your life maybbe relatively busy these days! From the outside you do seem to be handling things so well - I mean refusing to let your job get mixed up in policy and politics. I liked especially your statement - was it after seeing Kennedy? - that it was not your custom to give interviews.

Thanks again for your letter.

sincerely

Edwin
