Dear Allen -

Executive Registry

As Allen Grover and George McGhee said to me after you left last night, no one could have done what you did last night at our annual dinner meeting, just at this time except you yourself. Trustees and staff were reassured by your evaluation of the importance and continuing usefulness of the American Committee and its mission.

Your remarks were dead center on the target and all of us especially appreciated the fact that you took time to be with us here in New York for the evening at a time when you are exceptionally busy and are carrying such heavy responsibilities.

I am most grateful for your enthusiastic comments on my management of the affairs of the Committee -- I'll try to deserve them in some small part.

Thank you for coming and for giving all of us an evening that will stay vividly in our memories. I am sure you sensed the unanimous and wholehearted pleasure that every one at the dinner felt over your willingness to comply with the President-elect's request that you continue to direct the activities which you have been carrying on so ably and (necessarily) with so little public recognition.

It meant a great deal to me personally to have you with us.

Most sincerely,

Dear Allen -

Here is the analysis of Soviet selective jamming of BBC Russian broadcasts which I promised to send you after our discussion at dinner last evening. Pages 2 through 6 summarize the main conclusions.

This is the only attempt that I have seen to analyze the criteria the Soviets seem to use in deciding what to jam and what to let through.
