MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: I.V.G.

1. At the request of General Cabell, stated in his note on FE memorandum of 7 August 1953 attached, I called Colonel O'Neil, USAF (the senior Air Force officer represented at the meeting of 5 May in General Cabell's office), to inform him of General Chennault's discussion with General Twining, and asked him the present status of the matter within USAF.

2. Colonel O'Neil advised me that, following the meeting of 5 May, he and Lt. Colonel Armstrong had written a memorandum advising their superiors that they did not believe the program proposed was worth while. Colonel O'Neil stated that this memorandum had gone "up" and that nothing further had been heard from it, nor is additional action contemplated.
